

A detailed topographic map of a region in Finland, centered around the village of Passoja. The map features various geographical features and place names. A red line, likely a road or railway, runs diagonally across the map. A specific area, possibly a lake or wetland, is highlighted with a red outline and labeled with the number 18021. The map includes contour lines indicating elevation, and several bodies of water are shown in blue. Place names include Isoräme, Nurisalo, Tervola, Palokangas, Huhtala, Aliketo, Piimäräme, Haitanräme, Uusimäki, Passoja, Ojala, Korkiansalonneva, Salonneva, Mattila, Vehriäisneva, Pietinkoski, and Paloharju. The map also shows a network of roads and a railway line.

